THANKSGIVING CHURCH RITES

Congregations Unite For Exercises Thursday At Federated Church

A union church service for Thanksgiving will be held at the El Dorado County Federated Church on Thursday morning at ten o'clock.

Uniting in the service will be the congregations of the Placerville Church of the Nazarene and of the Federated Church, and an invitation to the general public to attend has been extended by the pastors in charge.

Special music for the service is being planned by the choir of the Federated Church with Mrs. M. E. Raber as soloist.

The Thanksgiving message will be by the Rev. C. P. Smales, pastor of the Placerville Church of the Nazarene.

The offering for the service will go to local welfare work as is the usual custom, according to the Rev. Harold Morehouse, who will share the pulpit.

Rev. Morehouse also calls attention to the plans of the Federated Church to send three gift boxes to deserving centers for the Thanksgiving season. Two of these gift boxes will go to orphanages and the third to Angel Island.

Those who have canned foods, clothing, toys or other articles which would be suitable may contribute them as they gather for the Thursday morning church service.

Turkey Day At Davis Dec. 2

County Growers Invited To Attend Demonstration And Conference

Turkey will be "King" at the Branch College of Agriculture of the University of California at Davis on Thursday, December 2, when growers gather for the annual demonstration day.

According to word received by Farm Advisor Ivan Lilley, all turkey growers of El Dorado County who are interested in the meeting will be welcomed at the day-long demonstration and conference.

The meeting will open at 9:45 o'clock in the morning at room 174 in the Animal Science building and morning demonstrations will be by the staffs of the Division of Poultry Husbandry and the Division of Veterinary Science. There will be a 11:30 o'clock luncheon at California Inn and the afternoon meeting will be held in the Horticultural Auditorium, beginning at one o'clock. Discussions will include addresses by extension service specialists and by leaders in turkey marketing organizations, treating on problems in turkey management and a consideration of various factors in addition to economic conditions which are reflected in returns to growers.

Reassurance To Nation Asked By Sen. Wheeler

WASHINGTON (UP)—Senator Burton K. Wheeler, democrat, Montana, today called upon the administration to "reassure the people that it is not seeking to destroy business." He advised such reassurance lest public fears may cause "a swing of the pendulum to the reactionaries."

The Montana senator said that the administration has "slipped materially in the country as a result of the court fight and of the business recession."

TURKEY DINNER COSTS HIGHER

Thanksgiving Bird Shows Gain In Price This Year; Trimmings Unchanged

WASHINGTON (UP)—Americans will give thanks tomorrow at festive dinners for the most bountiful production of good things to eat in 10 years.

The Thanksgiving dinner table may be loaded with luscious food at a cost little greater than a year ago. For a family of five the cost will range from $4 to $8 for a feast fit for a king.

Home economic experts of the Department of Agriculture prepared this sample menu for the United Press:

Fruit Cup
Roast Turkey or Roast Chicken
Giblet Gravy
Mashed Potatoes or Candied Sweet Potatoes
Brussels Sprouts or Another Green Vegetable
Cranberry Sauce
Celery and Olives
Pumpkin Pie
Coffee

Virtually all of the increased cost over a year ago will be for turkey, for those who prefer that bird. Turkey prices recently have averaged about 30 cents a pound. This is 5 cents a pound above last year.

REFUND MADE ON CITY PREMIUM

Placerville's Safety Record Praised By Compensation Insurance Fund

The City of Placerville, by its safety record during the year ended February 13, 1937, has earned a dividend of $440.33 under its state compensation insurance fund policy for that year, it was learned on Wednesday.

In a letter to the city government, Clark B. Day, manager of the state compensation insurance fund, praises the city's safety record for the period indicated as follows:

"The City of Placerville established an excellent record for keeping down accident costs during 1936-37, and we take pleasure in enclosing our check for $440.33 in payment of the dividend consequently earned under that year's policy. The policy year ran from February 13, 1936, to February 13, 1937. We appreciate the cooperation which enables us to effect this saving for the city and desire to congratulate you on the result.

"The attention which you give to accident prevention and the reduction of accident costs will save money each year for your city. The welfare of those of your citizens who are employees of the city of Placerville is far more important, however, than is the saving of money. They are the people to whom accident prevention means the most."

H. E. Dillinger Better, "Still Quite Ill"

The condition of H. E. Dillinger, who has been under treatment at Placerville Sanatorium since Monday of last week for an infection in his hand, continued to improve on Wednesday.

However, it was announced, he is "still quite ill" despite the improvement for and several days yet will not be permitted to have visitors other than the members of the immediate family.

Chinese Yield To Jap Demands At Shanghai

SHANGHAI (UP)—The Chinese government capitulated to Japanese demands today and prepared to suspend its chief functions in greater Shanghai, including the international settlement and French concession.

The Japanese had threatened to use force, if necessary, to end anti-Japanese activities in conquered areas around the city.

Bank of America Plans Bay Skyscraper

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Bank of America, one of the world's largest banks, is planning a skyscraper $2,000,000 building in San Francisco to house all its scattered central offices, it was disclosed today.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Clarence Hawkes, "The Blind Poet of Hadley, Mass.," who has been sightless for more than a half century, has written for the United Press the following poem:

A Song For Thanksgiving

By CLARENCE HAWKES
(The Blind Poet of Hadley)

From the sowing to the reaping,
Brooding o'er each fertile field,
God the works of man did shield,
Sent him sunshine without measure,
Sent him also gentle rain,
Till the harvest, at His pleasure,
Golden stood in field and plain,
Fruit and grain were in His keeping,
Then went there forth, a mighty hoard,
To reap the blessings of the Lord.

Barns are full, there is a plenty,
And each bin has grain to spare,
As we have received God's bounty,
Let us not forget to share,
With your measure overflowing,
Cast your bread upon the sea,
On some worthy one bestowing,
Friendship, love and charity,
Even sparrows pecking on the sill,
Thanksgiving Day should have their fill.

Other lands are torn with fighting,
Other countries filled with strife,
Shot and shell their landscape plighting,
Here we live a peaceful life,
Happy homes and happy toilers,
From the east unto the west,
Still resisting social spoilers,
In the land that God hath blessed,
Let us love and pity more,
If Lazarus be at our door.

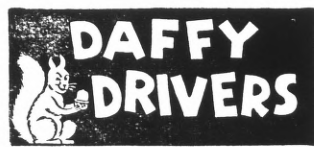

Let us keep that sense of duty
That we learned from Pilgrim days,
Let us cherish truth and beauty,
In these faithless, darksome days,
May we heal that cruel canker,
Eating at the hearts of men,
Giving love for hate and rancor,
More of love than earth has seen,
An extra plate and cover lay,
In Christ's dear name Thanksgiving Day.

CITY TO BE DECORATED FOR CHRISTMAS BY CO-OPERATIVE BUSINESS MEN

Work Starts Friday Morning On Program Similar To That Used In Other Years; Santa Claus Expected To Visit In Placerville Before Holiday Season

According to Albert Simon, chairman of the Christmas promotions committee of the Placerville Merchants Association, Christmas decoration for the streets of the city will start Friday morning.

The plan of decorations, the committee pointed out, will follow about the same procedure and plan of other years, which consists of lining the main street from the west entrance to town, near Raley's Market, to the Pioneer

Making a hand signal in traffic requires little brain power and still less physical energy. Yet some drivers don't signal at all. Too preoccupied, perhaps, or just too lazy—both physically and mentally—to go to the trouble of signaling. Know the signals practiced in your community and use them when stopping, pulling away from the curb or turning. After all, the man behind can't read your mind. Signal when necessary—and always give the right signals.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ward left on Wednesday for Mill Valley to spend Thanksgiving Day with Mr. and Mrs. Don Thomsen.

County Clerk Arthur Koletzke and sister are spending Thanksgiving Day with their sister, Mrs. Emma Krieger, as Sacramento.

MISSING ATTORNEY ILL, SAY FRIENDS

Rosenberger Gains Release On $3,500 Surety Bond Pending His Appeal

J. A. Rosenberger, San Francisco broker convicted a week ago on charges of violating the state corporate securities act, gained release from the county jail pending appeal on Wednesday when William Ferriter, San Francisco attorney, posted a $3,500 surety bond in the Superior Court.

Meanwhile, a rumor was heard at the courthouse to the effect that Bertram Ross, San Francisco attorney, who was chief defense counsel in the Rosenberger trial, who disappeared Friday evening, is "in a hospital."

Ross was enroute to Placerville to post a surety bond for Rosenberger's release when he experienced a traffic accident near Sacramento and telephoned Mrs. Rosenberger, who was in Placerville, to the effect that he had been delayed and would get here later than he had anticipated.

Since that time, nothing had been heard concerning his whereabouts until the rumor was heard at the courthouse Wednesday that Ross was "in a hospital."

County officials answered inquiries on the matter by saying "someone started the report" but were unable to quote any authority for the explanation.

CLUB TO OFFER TWO PLAYS

Entertainment Planned For Evening Of December 3 At Clubhouse

The Drama Section of the Placerville Shakespeare Club will present an evening of entertainment at the clubhouse on Friday night, December 3, which it is hoped the general public will find worth while.

The program will feature two one-act plays which have been arranged under the supervision of the section chairman, Mrs. H. P. Brown, with the members of the club portraying the various characters.

The offerings are "The Flying Grandmother" and "Minerva Sets the Stage."

In the first-named presentation Mrs. James B. Blair is Mrs. Emma Richards, the flying grandmother; and she will be supported by Mrs. E. R. Brander, as Elizabeth; Mrs. J. A. Hodapp, as Marian; Mrs. J. A. Dugan, as Cynthia; and Mrs. E. Ogden Hook as Susan.

"Minerva Sets the Stage" has Mrs. A. McKinnon in the title role with Mrs. E. R. Brander as Grace; Mrs. Charles E. Hand as Mrs. Enright; Miss Monica McCusker as Granny; Mrs. Robert E. Carpenter as Mrs. Snook; Mrs. C. E. Barker as Flossie Cander, and Thomas Flynn as Augustus Chapman.

French Royalist Plot Definitely Broken

PARIS (UP)—Additional details of a plot to overthrow the popular front government and reestablish the Bourbon monarchy revealed today that the revolutionists had planned an uprising rivaling the great French revolution of 1789.

The government reported that it had foiled the plot and that the "safety of the regime is assured."

9-Power Conference Gives Up Ghost

BRUSSELS (UP)—The nine power conference convened privately today and wrote its own death warrant, confessing inability to effect peace between Japan and China.

Unable to coax Japan into peace talks and unwilling to exert pressure on Tokyo, the 19 powers represented contented themselves with adopting a declaration of principles and a historical summary of the conference's work.

O. E. Fowler, of the state division of forestry, and A. W. Glendenning, of the regional forester's office in the division of roads, were at Eldorado Forest headquarters on Wednesday.

FIVE KILLED IN FRESNO WRECK

9 Other Transients Injured In Freight Train Derailment; Oil Burns As Tanks Burst

FRESNO (UP)—Five transients were reported killed and at least nine others were injured, three so seriously they may die, early today when eight oil cars in the center of a 24-car Southern Pacific freight train were derailed at Kerman, 15 miles west of here.

None of the dead had been identified, it was reported by Coroner John Lisle.

All of the injured men were suffering from severe burns from acid sludge oil which was released over a wide area when the tank cars burst.

Railroad officials said the accident occurred when an arch support beneath one of the 21 loaded cars collapsed, causing the car and seven others behind it to jump the track.

Wrecking crews from Tracy and Fresno were repairing 1500 feet of track which had been torn up while traffic was being rerouted through the Merced section and Modesto to the east side of the valley. The Owl passenger train southbound from San Francisco to Los Angeles, was held up for several hours early today until a siding could be repaired.

Damage to train equipment was estimated at $5,000 by railroad officials. They said the figure did not include damage to the contents of the cars which included raisins, dried peaches and oil.

The injured men included Samuel Jenkins, 54, of Mount Alba, Tex.; Andrew Brown, 24, of Joplin, Mo.; Jack Marshall, 19, of Los Angeles; John Willig, 28, of Middleton, Conn.; Phil A. Green, Los Banos; John Muirhead, 25, Los Angeles, and Ray Elliott, 21, Los Angeles.

Natomas Bombing Base Offered

Dredger Company Will Give Government Use of 3,200 Acres Near Folsom

SACRAMENTO (UP)—Chamber of Commerce officials will confer with Col. Davenport Johnson, Hamilton Field army air base commander, Friday on possibilities of converting a 3,200 acre tract of rocky, useless land near Sacramento into a bombing target range.

The land, adjacent to Mather Field, has been offered to the war department as a gift from the Natomas Co. The land has been made virtually useless by gold dredging operations.

Officials believed bombing practice would start at the site soon after the first of the year.

California Calls Off Georgia Tech Game

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—As a preliminary to participation in the annual Tournament of Roses football game at Pasadena New Year's Day, the University of California today formally postponed a Christmas day game scheduled here with Georgia Tech.

World War Wounds Claim New Hampshire Hero

NASHUA, N. H. (UP)—Cecil M. Lugin, 52, realtor, died here yesterday of complications resulting from World War wounds.

A member of the Princess Pat regiment, Lugin suffered 58 bullet wounds and had both legs shot away at the battle of Ypres, but lived to return to New England.

New Horse Show Arena Asked Of WPA

SACRAMENTO (UP)—Robert Muckler, secretary-manager of the California State Fair, was enroute east today to submit to federal authorities a request for WPA funds to construct a $700,000 horse show arena at the State Fair grounds.

William Henderson, who is attending University at Berkeley, will spend the Thanksgiving holiday with his parents at Diamond Springs.

W. F. Kirby was in town on Wednesday from Folsom.

lovelier than white damask, but any attractive table linen will do.

A bowl of fruits and nuts or a low dish of flowers will make the centerpiece. Candles add glamour, if you wish to go to that trouble. If you are serving without a maid, have on the table when your guests are seated, your jelly, pickles and first course. Remove this and serve all but the dessert as the middle course. Let the guests pass the rolls and center dishes about the table. Do not get excited; be yourself—calm and jolly—and a "good time" will be had by all.

Buying Gloves

When buying gloves, try them on in the store and keep on trying until you find one which fits the contour of your hand. Hands swell when warm and it is a good plan to go to the washroom and wash the hands in cold water, then let the sales girl put the gloves on for you, after powdering your hand well. Silk or fabric gloves should be a trifle larger than kid or leather gloves. A leather glove which is reasonably loose will wear better and keep its shape better than one which is too snug.

When partly tanned, the leather for gloves is white. Gloves which have a finish called "cape" are dyed all the way through the leather, while "lamb" gloves have the color brushed on the surface, leaving the inside, the flesh side, white. Cape leather is usually heavier and closer grained.

Mocha has a soft or velvet finish on sheepskin. Suede leather has a soft finish on the flesh side of the leather. It makes an attractive dress glove, but will not stand hard wear. Cotton is beautifully knitted to resemble chambray, suede and doeskin. Such gloves wear well, are good looking, wash well and are suitable for wear all the year around. Silk gloves are only for warm weather wear.

Recent rains have started new feed in Mendocino County and stockmen anticipate a good winter.

This & That

By The Tattletale

My but these have been busy days for us! Went down to see what the teachers have to put up with at their institute and found a great deal of importance. You'll be hearing statistics from it for years to come. Then we have been scurrying hither and yon trying to decide whether to have chicken or turkey or goose or duck or just plain roast beef and wound up by deciding to go to the restaurant because it is so much cheaper so we have picked out a nice one that has several ample sofas that we can plow down on when we finish gorging ourselves. All in all, we are looking forward to tomorrow with a great deal of pleasure—to say nothing of appetite.

Probably the funniest thing we heard at the teachers' Institute was an announcement at the end of the first day's session. "The session on science will visit," said the chairman, "the Buffalo Brewing Works." That's where we spent the afternoon . . . looking around!

Another little item well worth your attention was mentioned in a small discussion group in a stuffy room that same afternoon. Seems that the lecturer was talking about how quickly our civilization changes and the resulting changes that must be made in the school to meet them. Just lately the city of Los Angeles sent out a questionnaire to every school child in the system to try to find out how many had actually seen a real cow and calf. Well, (don't laugh) only fifty per cent had seen a cow when the votes were collected and seventy per cent had never seen a calf. Odd, isn't it? But he swore it was true. Anyway the superintendent got hold of a cow some way and put it in a trailer and took it around to all the schools! Then New York heard about all this and conducted a similar survey and found the results to be about the same—and they also got a trailer (a big one), put in all the animals they could find, found a farmer and his wife who agreed to go along too and are now touring all the schools of little old New York to show those children as much as they can about "life on the farm." Just thought we would tell you this to make sure you keep up with the latest in everything. But maybe we won't get invited again if we tell all we learn . . .

We have notices down here in the stop-sign city that preparations are being rushed for the Christmas season and we hasten to remind you that there ARE only twenty-five more shopping days 'till the big day (not that we expect to see you shopping until . . .)

Surprise All Around

By Harry F. O'Neill

The secret of a successful company meal is wise planning and execution in advance. Write down your menu—a soup or fruit cocktail for the first course; a meat dish; only one kind of potatoes, white or sweet; one other cooked vegetable; an extra-delicious salad; and a dessert. Of course there will be coffee, served with the meal or with the dessert, as your guests prefer, and there may be pickles, olives, jam or cranberries, and hot rolls.

See that your cupboard contains, or order, all the ingredients you will need. Write down the contents of each dish to make sure. List the dishes you will use, plates, glasses, silver and get them ready the day before. Set your table several hours ahead. There is nothing

CABINS MARK SITE OF INDIAN TREATY ENACTMENT

PIERRE, S. D., (U)—Two abandoned log cabins still remain on historic Peoria Bottom, 12 miles north of here, as reminders of the site where a part of Gen. W. S. Harney's troops camped during the winter of 1855-56 — just prior to the general's famous treaty with the Teton and Yankton Sioux at Fort Pierre the following spring.

One cabin was used as a dwelling by Yellow Hawk, noted Sans Arc chieftain, and later utilized by a farmer as a shed for several years.

Named for the "Peoria Belle," a steamboat that was crushed in the ice of the Missouri river near there, the Bottom also is the site of a large village of Arikara Indians who lived there more than a century ago.

Following the winter of 1855-56, Gen. Harney held a conference with the Indians at Ft. Pierre in an effort to induce them to stop molesting travelers on the California trail during the gold rush days. When the treaty was concluded, it was agreed that 11 chiefs from each band, together with what braves were needed, would do police duty along the trail. The plan was new, sounded feasible, but never was ratified by the government.

Across the river from Peoria bottom is Chantier creek — commonly called "Shanty" creek. The area around the mouth of this little stream was dubbed the "navy yard" because considerable timber was cut there and floated down the river to be used for construction work at Ft. Pierre.

Loser Of Election Bet Is Stranger To Friends

BUFFALO, N. Y., (U)—Walter F. Schmieding had to get acquainted with his friends all over again—all because Thomas L. Holling, Democrat, defeated Edwin F. Jaekle, Republican, for the Buffalo mayoralty.

Schmieding, Republican member of the Erie county elections board, bet his mustache Jaekle would win.

A few days after paying the bet by shaving off his mustache he walked downtown.

"By actual count, 43 friends, some of them very close ones, passed me by because they did not recognize me," he reported after the walk—his first minus his mustache.

Jail Lodging Limited For Transients

LORAIN, O., (U)—Police Chief Theodore Walker has decreed that transients may lodge in the police station cellar for no longer than three nights. "If they can't find a job in three days," he says, "they may as well leave."

Those who apply for a fourth night's privileges will be charged with vagrancy. Some of the guests, it seems, have not been behaving any too well.

Some were found panhandling on the streets, while others came in intoxicated, and there was evidence that a few were doing a little shoplifting on the side.

Ruth Elder To Have Florida Home

MOUNT DORA, Fla., (U)—Lake county is to be the residence of Ruth Elder, famous aviatrix, who attempted trans-Atlantic flight in 1927 ended in disaster when her plane, "The American Girl," plunged into the ocean near Rotterdam, as she was flying to Paris from New York.

Miss Elder, now a resident of California, plans to build a home for her mother, Mrs. J. O. Elder, and her aunt, Mrs. Susie M. Odum, in Mount Dora, where she herself expects to be a frequent visitor. Her uncle, Richard T. McClellan, now lives in Mount Dora.

License Erasure Easier Than Divorce Suit

COJUILLE, Ore., (U)—A happy couple watched county clerk L. W. Oddy enter their names in the marriage license record book.

Several hours later they reappeared and asked to have the names removed. Ink eraser was used in large quantities and the fee was refunded.

"This," said the man as they sauntered out, "is easier than obtaining a divorce."

Ann Harding Seeking Canada Woods Camp

ST. STEPHEN, (U)—Ann Harding and her equally famous conductor-husband, Werner Jannsen, are spending their time in the St. Croix valley near here looking over sites for a summer woods camp.

Richard Crooks, opera star, has spent the summer here for a number of years.

"LOVES ME, LOVES ME NOT" DISPLACED BY MACHINE AGE

TOLEDO, (U)—The old, unscientific method of measuring affection by pulling petals off daisies has given way to the march of progress in the University of Toledo.

Two senior engineering students, John Hawley and G. Edman Keener, have developed a machine known as a "cupidoscope" that "calibrates in terms called 'amorycles' the affection that the college girl has for her boy friend."

This gadget is composed principally of an old motor spark coil, a rheostat and a glass dial graduated as follows:

1. No Hope. 2. Just Friends. 3. Puppy Love. 4. Overwhelming Urge to Kiss. 5. We Want to Be Alone. 6. See the Preacher or Undertaker.

To operate the machine, a youth moves a lever, called the "male electrode," toward the top. His co-ed friend grasps a "female electrode" and also moves it upward until it makes contact with the spark coil, shocking her electrically.

The farther she moves the lever, the more electricity she gets. An indicator records her degree of affection on the dial.

The machine is housed in the physics laboratory and has attracted large numbers of curious students.

Over 2,000 persons have applied for the sixty-nine homesteads to be opened in the Tule Lake district.

Pupils Must Pay Back Time On Vacation

ST. JOHN, N. B., (U)—From now until next June children in this city and in suburban districts will attend school for an extra half-hour each day to make up for lost time during the infantile paralysis epidemic.

Schools which were supposed to open on September 7th did not go into session until October 25th.

TOT PLEADS IN 2 TONGUES FOR CHANCE TO RIDE IN PLANE

GREENVILLE, Miss., (U)—Pudgy, blue-eyed and tow-headed little Iris Monson, 2, jabbers in two languages to make her father take her flying and she already has 60 hours in the air.

She's the daughter of a famous Norwegian parachute jumper and an American pilot, Sidney A. Monson, and combines her vocabularies to exact a "fly."

Monson is proprietor of the Greenville Air Service and Flying School. The baby toddles out to her father's ship and the family conference goes something like this:

"Vil do flyve?" says the mother. "Wanta fly kid?" inquires Monson. "Ja! Yes!" the baby cries, delightedly.

German Skeleton fails To Pass Customs

WILMINGTON, Del., (U)—The U. S. Customs officers received a shock when they opened for inspection a box from Germany consigned to St. Francis hospital. It contained a human skeleton.

But the story didn't end there. The hospital refused to accept the skeleton because the order for it had been cancelled, and it will have to rattle its way back across the Atlantic.

POPULAR SONGS TEACH CREED, MINISTER AVERS

SCHNECTADY, N. Y., (U)—Popular songs are teaching and preaching the doctrines that teachers and preachers dare not mention, the Rev. Bernard C. Clausen, pastor of the Pittsburgh First Baptist Church told the Eastern Zone convention of the New York State Teachers' Association.

As illustration, he mentioned three songs: "Did I Remember?" "Plenty of Money and You," and "Pennies from Heaven."

He praised "Did I Remember?" as "daring to indicate a practical technique for living."

"Nine-tenths of moral failure is due to failure to remember," he announced. "Dogs can be trained so that at the sound of a bell certain fundamental physiological processes take place in them."

"Boys and girls, men and women, could be trained to do the right thing always by remembering the consequences. We could—if we would and if we dared—take the minds of our pupils and train them so when danger presented itself a bell would automatically ring in the back of their minds."

Bird Songs Learned To Aid Camera Study

HONOLULU, (U)—By learning the songs of 36 different species of birds in the islands, Walter L. Donaghoo, ornithologist, assigned to study bird life in the U. S. National park here, has solved the problem of photographing the birds.

The latter are ordinarily too quick for anything but a telescopic camera that can take them from a distance. With his 36 different bird songs, however, he is now able to induce the birds to come near enough to be photographed with an ordinary lens.

Stom Coughing?

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold, or bronchitis irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be healing and you cannot afford to lose a chance with any remedy less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel the phlegm-laden phlegm.

Even if other remedies have failed, take Creomulsion. Creomulsion is a natural drug, is authorized to refund money if it does not thoroughly relieve your trouble. It is obtained from the very best of the C. C. Creomulsion is one word—no other name is known in it. Ask for it by name, so that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion and you'll get the relief you need and the relief you want.

children of the county," says Mr. Simon.

The street decorations and Christmas merchandising program is arranged and paid for each year through a cooperative spirit among the merchants and businessmen of Placerville, who contribute to a fund that is used entirely for this purpose. More than 75 merchants have already given to this fund, which indicates the finest cooperation, committeemen pointed out. There are some who have not as yet sent in their contributions. These should be immediately given or mailed to Mance H. Vaught, secretary of the Association, it was stated.

The committee is asking all merchants to have their stores and windows trimmed for Christmas as soon after Thanksgiving as possible, with the thought in mind that all stores should be in readiness not later than the first of December. Several merchants have already taken the lead and now have their stores decorated with all lines of Christmas merchandise now fully displayed.

GUILTY OF MURDER according to the finding of a jury at Pittsfield, Illinois, today, here is Rev. Colonel E. Newton, as he sits in his cell, meditating upon the state's accusation he killed Mrs. Maybelle Kelly, his admiring parishioner and confidante.

PASTOR, FOUND GUILTY ON CHARGES HE MURDERER PARISHIONER, DECLARES TRIAL PREJUDICED AND ANNOUNCES HE WILL SEEK NEW TRIAL

PITTSFIELD, Ill. (UP)—The Rev. Colonel E. Newton, frail Baptist preacher, was found guilty today by a circuit court jury of the murder of Mrs. Maybelle Kelly, his admiring parishioner and confidante.

The jury of 11 farmers and a barber recommended that the 51-year-old preacher be sentenced to life imprisonment.

They reached their verdict at 1:18 a. m. after eight hours deliberation. Newton was awakened from a sound sleep and brought into court.

"We find the defendant guilty as charged and recommend he be sentenced to prison for the rest of his natural life," the foreman said.

Newton remained calm.

"I'm not much surprised," he said, "what with all the prejudice and publicity. I'm going to ask for a new trial. If I fall in that I will appeal to a higher court."

His son, Noel, 24, and step-daughter, Myra Hanan, 37, who testified against him returned home when testimony was ended. Dennis Kelly, the slain woman's husband, also had left before the verdict.

Miss Ethel Christian was among those who attended the California-Stanford football game Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Donahue and Miss Ila Longhurst visited with Mr. Donahue's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Donahue in San Francisco last week-end.

MIAMI, Fla. (UP)—Air express shipments in and out of Miami last year totaled 250,000 pounds as compared with 112,020 in 1934. Pan American Airways and Eastern Air Lines have reported to the city department of finance.

Parade With Old Musket Results In Arrest

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (UP)—Toting a 150-year-old musket, believed to be a relic of Hudson Bay fur-trading days, resulted in the arrest of Samuel Rose, 31, of Syracuse.

Rose pleaded guilty to a charge of public intoxication and he received a suspended sentence.

He said he "borrowed" the gun from the home of Miss Joyce A. Merchant. She said the ancient firearm was used by her great-grandfather as a fur-trader in Quebec 150 years ago.

Richmond Urges Ford To Re-Open Plant

RICHMOND (UP)—The Richmond city council has forwarded to Ford Motor Company officials a request that the Ford plant at Richmond be reopened. It was closed Sept. 3 as a "seasonal measure," according to officials.

Previously the plant was the scene of two brief strikes. The council pledged "full cooperation in maintaining law and order" in event the plant re-opened.

"Biggest 2-Year-Old" Title Brings "War"

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—A battle of chambers of commerce may rage over the heads—big for their age—of James Donald Arwood of Philadelphia and Melvin Ballinger of Los Angeles.

James and Melvin both claim the title of "biggest 2-year-old." James was well known in his neighborhood but his parents clamored for national recognition after Melvin was declared the "champion" because of his 42 pounds and 8 ounces.

James weighs an even 50 pounds and lifts chairs and rides a bicycle, his parents said.

Civil Army Paper Found In Wyoming

RAWLINS, Wyo. (UP)—A Civil War army discharge, nearly 75 years old, made out to Private James G. Rankin, Company A, 135th Pennsylvania Regiment, was found here.

Still legible, although yellowed with age, the document revealed its original owner had entered the Union service in Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 7, 1862, and stated his age as 21.

Rawlins residents recalled Rankin as one of Wyoming's pioneer ranchers.
